Theodore W. Myers, Ex-Controller, Dies

Word reached New York yesterday Street.

if. Myers was seventy-three years old. His health had not been good for some time, but seemed greatly improved on Friday, when he returned from a vacation in Florida, and his feath was unexpected. His wife surthes him.

He was born in New York City on Hanuary 11, 1844, the son of Lawrence Myers. He was educated in this country and in France and Germany. He tanisted in organizing Sickles's Brigade and served as captain through the Civil War.

In 1864 he became cashier of the hanking house of Camblos & Myers. Later he became a special partner in the Stock Exchange firm of M. E. De

In 1864 he became cashier of the banking house of Camblos & Myers. Later he became a special partner in the Stock Exchange firm of M. E. De Rivas & Co., until 1884, when he organized Theodore Myers & Son. His son dying in 1902, he formed the partnership of Arthur Lipper & Co., retaining his interest until his death.

In 1887 he was a Park Commissioner, In 1887 he was elected Controller. He was a collector of paintings and a patron of grand opera. He was a member of the New York Yacht Club, the Manhattan Club, the National Democratic Club, the New York Yacht Club, the Manhattan Club, the National Democratic Club, the Automobile Club of Engiand and the Edward Stott

Mitchel H. Mark, president of the Strand Theatre Corporation of this city, died yesterday in his home in Buffalo after a short illness. Mr. Mark, who was born in Greenville, S. C., 1862, is survived by his widow, two daughters, a brother and a sister.

Mr. Mark, one of the beat known the strical exhibitors in the country, gave the first public motion picture pretentation in the United States in a little theatre he opened at Ellicott Square, Buffalo, He was also the originator of the penny arcades in this and other cities.

While operating a hat store in Buffalo, he became interested in the motion picture industry. He built many theatres in to United States and Canada, the Strand being the largest.

which, it is alleged, the actor owes on notes.

The court proceedings yesterday were largely taken up by the testimony of Lawrence Murston, formerly employed as a director by the Mirror company, who, besides telling the jury that how Coadwin was the best actor in America, explained at length why it wasn't such a terrible thing after all if he was late when ordered to report to the studio.

Part of the defence made to Mr.
Goodwin's suit was that he was incompetent. In the opinion of Mr. Marston to the studio.

"There is no way Mr. Goodwin could do his work improperly," Mr. Marston tostified. "He played like Nat Goodwin, and what more is to be said?"

There's more to come to-day.
